REPORT ON THE TEACHERS DAY

The Loyola Commerce Association LCA organised the Teachers' Day on 5th September between 10.10 am to 11.30 am. The program was arranged to acknowledge and show the gratitude of the students for the faculty members of Commerce.

The event began with the prayer song invoking the God's blessings by Maria Joe Jeswin. The Documentation Secretary P. Amalraj gave the welcome speech. S. Jebin Nicksteve Roger delivered his speech in Tamil cherishing the service of the teachers. Karthikeyan rendered a beautiful song and was supported by the key board music, played by Marcus.

Dr. A. Jesu Kulandairaj and Ms. A. Leena Mercy enchanted the students by their graceful songs. An audio visual prepared by the technical team was played, appreciating the faculty members of the Department. The felicitation was given by Dr. A. Marcus, HoD, Dr. T. Joseph Former HoD and Dr. N. Maria Joseph, LCA President.

The students showed their gratitude by giving a worthwhile mementos to all the faculty members. Finally, the program ended with the vote of thanks rendered by Rakshana, final year M. Com students.
