Ms. Lalitha Nandakumar started her training with a presentation on “Leadership Matters”. Various activities were conducted in this process of leadership training namely –

- Introduce the new friend: Divided by a team of 2 participants in each group.

During the gear-up stage, the participants were expected to pick a random partner out of the crowd and give a brief introduction about him. This was undertaken as an ice-breaking session with a view to breaking through the barrier of communication.

CREATING OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENTS TO KNOW EACH OTHER

- Event Planning

At the end, 5 teams were formed and small group activity was conducted. Participants were given a timeframe of 25 minutes to plan out an event not necessarily related to college or forum activities. Specifics like event objectives, location, dates, financing, schedule etc., were required to be filled out and written on a piece of chart paper which was provided by the Chief Guest. Later, the teams were asked to present and speak about their plan and explain the details of the event planned out by them.
