Report on the Faculty Development Programme on “Enhancing Evaluation Excellence: Rubrics for Assessment & Evaluation and Semester Exam Practices”

IQAC organised a Faculty Development Programme on “Enhancing Evaluation Excellence: Rubrics for Assessment & Evaluation and Semester Exam Best Practices”, on 20th October 2023 for all academic staff of the college.

Education is a dynamic field that constantly evolves to meet the changing needs of learners and society. In this rapidly evolving landscape, educators, institutions, and stakeholders must continuously explore innovative strategies and best practices for teaching, learning, and evaluation. Promoting a culture of academic excellence, the FDP aimed to equip teachers with the knowledge and skills necessary for effective assessment and evaluation covering three important areas: (1) Rubrics for Assessment & Evaluation, (2) Evaluation of Loyola LOCF Model and (3) Semester Exam Best Practices. Teachers were empowered with the essential knowledge and skills to implement rubrics effectively in their teaching and assessment practices and were disseminated with key considerations, cautions, and best practices for designing and administering effective semester exams.

The FDP was organised for Arts, Sciences and Commerce streams parallel in three different venues with three in-house discipline specific resource persons. 398 faculty participated in the programme.

Session 2: Review of Loyola LOCF Model

As it has been almost three years since LOCF-based UG and PG curricula were introduced, a series of brainstorming sessions and training programmes organised to prepare the academic faculty for implementation of the Loyola LOCF Model and the next cycle of UG restructuring has been initiated, it is a need of the hour to have a midterm evaluation of the same to plan for better execution in future. In this regard, a Google Form based feedback was collected from all the participants seeking their constructive suggestions for the betterment of this model.

Session 3: Semester Exam Success: Best Practices and Teacher Guidelines

Time: 11.15 a.m. – 12.45 p.m.
