‘CREATING WINNING IDEAS’

28th September, 2015 11:25 A.M

Y.D. Hall

Second Session of Springboard for the Quality Circle Members

Building the foundation of faith that we learn and begin to build confidence, hope, perseverance and our ability to love others — but most importantly, ourselves. By building our lives on values and time-tested principles, we equip ourselves with the ability to continue forging ahead with confidence and steeling our resolve in the face of adversity, difficulty and failures.

BE A WINNER

"Keeping your focus towards the finishing line is what matters" was the biggest motivational quote for the day. Questions were raised by the students. A group discussion was done where each group were given a topic with some values to take back .
