Editorial

In Loyola College, we view education seriously. Higher Education in Loyola College rests on five pillars: Access, Equity, Quality, Excellence, Relevance and Value-based inner formation. Our single-minded pursuit of excellence has been rewarded by NAAC by giving us a CGPA of 3.70 out of 4.00. The A Grade consistently awarded to Loyola College has elevated it to the ranks of the top five colleges in India out of a total of 33,500 colleges in 2013. This is a rare accomplishment indeed with a cause to celebrate.

Our self-worth as an educational institution is based on solid achievements. The principle of zero tolerance for substandard work, the sustained efforts and dedication of our highly qualified professors, the instilling of discipline and order by our efficient management and willing acceptance of the rule of law by our students has catapulted Loyola to new heights.

The editorial team has burnt the midnight oil to ensure that the following pages will provide you with the clinching proof of all our impressive intellectual attainments. We have done our best to make this magazine error-free. We invite you to read, reflect and rejoice. May God continue to bless our college.

COLLEGE DAY

6th April 2013

Respected Chief Guest of the 88th College Day Function and our distinguished alumnus, Honorable Prof. Ramakrishna Ramasamy, Vice Chancellor, University of Hyderabad, Rev. Fr. K. Amal, S.J., Rector, Rev. Dr. M. Albert William, S.J., Secretary, Rev. Dr. S. Arockiasamy, S.J., Deputy Principal, Dr. S. Albones Raj, Vice Principal, Officials of the College, Rev. Fathers, Sisters, Members of the teaching and non-teaching fraternity, Alumni, Parents, Benefactors, Members from the Press and my dear Students.

With immense pleasure, I present the annual report for the academic year 2012-13.

At this historic moment, I want to express my sincere gratitude to all the great men and women who have done yeoman and dedicated service that has made Loyola stand tall and committed to the ideals for which the college was founded.

In Jesuit education, particular care is given to the development of the imaginative, the affective, and the creative dimensions of each student in all courses of study. These dimensions enrich learning and prevent it from being merely intellectual. They are essential in the formation of the whole person and are a way to discover God as He reveals Himself through beauty. For these same reasons, Jesuit education includes opportunities through course work and through extracurricular activities for all students to come to appreciation of literature, aesthetics, music and the fine arts.

The report I am presenting has the dimensions mentioned in the characteristics of Jesuit Education. The New academic year 2012-13 commenced on 18th June 2012 for the senior students; but for the newly recruited faculty members of our college on 6th June itself with a week-long orientation programme on Jesuit Higher Education and the ethos of Loyola College.

THRUST AREAS OF THE COLLEGE

The College has concentrated mainly on improving the examination results of the students this year. In addition to this: mentoring, remedial programme, restructuring and placement were taken more seriously. We have laid more stress on remedial/tutorial to all weaker sections of the students. The students who are weak in English were identified and given regular coaching in English. The departments were involved in conducting remedial programme for the academically weaker students. Mentoring has been strengthened through training of teachers keeping in mind the first generation students and the students from the marginalized sections of the society. Specific instructions have been given to all our professors to make this mentoring programme very effective and useful to the student community particularly for the students who are first generation learners. The college has constituted a restructuring committee and they are revisiting teaching, learning and evaluation practices of the departments. Restructured curriculum was introduced from 2012-13 for all courses. This year the placement of students was done very methodically and effectively and I am very happy to announce that we have placed a maximum number of students who had registered with the placement office for jobs in reputed companies.

1. School Concept

The School of Commerce and Economics is almost complete. With the increased infrastructure, the college should establish more schools. A School of Social Sciences, the School of Physical Sciences, the School of Natural Sciences, the School of Languages and a School of Computer Sciences have been proposed.

OBITUARY

Rev. Fr. Pierre Ceyrac S.J passed away on 30th May 2012. Fr. Ceyrac S.J. who is known for his deep love for the poor and the marginalized people of our country, was an embodiment of simplicity and compassion. In his death, the Jesuit community has lost an invaluable companion.

S. Sujesh (12-CH-028) a first year B.Sc. Chemistry student of Shift – I passed away on 12.09.2012 due to an accident.

We were deeply shocked to hear the news of their demise and pray to Almighty God to grant peace to the departed souls.

It will be necessary to study the implications of this change in terms of structures, curriculum and development of human resources. Initiating the School concept can slowly help to us move towards Degree awarding college status.

The School concept can be used to bring new and relevant courses, appropriate curriculum, inter-disciplinary research and inter-school co-operation.

2. Teacher Training Programmes

We need a serious study of the ways we recruit staff and the ways we assess the need of human resources. A separate cell is in the making. This would look into the actual need for staffing and placing that staff properly. Several new faculty members have been recruited. The college will continue to organize appropriate training programmes in teaching methodology and evaluation. The professors will be assisted to update their knowledge and funds can be created to support staff development.

3. Research

Research culture should be the hall mark of the institution. Greater encouragement will be given by the management to promote research. Infrastructural facilities for the researchers will be improved. A certain amount of seed money can be given to encourage research. If we are able to get 200% tax exemption, then donations to research will increase and this will lead to the enhancement of research activities in the College.

4. Realising the Loyola Master Plan

The Loyola Master Plan is being realized steadily. In building itself for its future, Loyola has paid its attention to effective management of human resources and financial management. The Master Plan has clearly delineated different strategies for quality education. Among them, developing capability of our faculty to make them competent teachers will get special attention in the coming months.

II INFRASTRUCTURE

1. School of Commerce and Economics

The construction of the school of Commerce and Economics is progressing well. The building is expected to be completed by the end of this academic year.

2. College Office

The college has seen huge growth and this has increased the workload in the main office. This demands space reorganization and modernization of the system and facilities.

3. Hostel

As the college becomes more and more international, there is a need for providing adequate hostel facilities. Serious thought should be given to increase the facilities in the hostel through additional buildings. One more floor will be added to the Loyola Women Hostel building.

4. Auditorium

Loyola College requires a state of the art auditorium within the campus. Priority should be given to plan seriously for it.

5. Pavilion

If the college plans to start a School of Physical education, it is important to improve the standard of the play grounds and increase the facilities available in the pavilion.

III FUND RAISING

The college established the Loyola Development Office. The college should think seriously of making this office an epicentre of all fund raising activities. A PRO who will help to improve the image of the college in the public eye, could be appointed. The Alumni association could be a part of this endeavour. The contribution of these three would boost the image of this college and help towards fund raising.

It is also important to set aside a certain amount of money for academic development like research and field projects. This could involve contacting philanthropists, like minded persons and government and non-government agents. It could be a major concern of the LDO.

The developments that are envisaged will help Loyola College to continue provide quality and affordable education in India and take Loyola into the next decade as an important educational institution to be reckoned in India.

CONCLUSION

First of all let me thank God Almighty for guiding Loyola College throughout this academic year and showering His blessings on the administration, officials, teaching and non-teaching staff and students of this great temple of learning.

I express my sincere thanks to Rev. Dr Sebastia L.Raj S.J. our Provincial, Rev.Fr. K.Amal S.J. Rector, Rev. Dr M.Albert William S.J. Secretary, Rev. Dr S.Arocikasamy S.J. Deputy Principal for their constant support and encouragement throughout this academic year to discharge my duties satisfactorily. My thanks are also due to Rev.Dr Devadoss Mudiappasamy S.J. former Provincial and Rev.Dr C.Joe Arun S.J. for all the support given to me during the last three years.

I was extremely fortunate to have an inspiring and wonderful band of dedicated officials and faculty to share my responsibility all along this academic year. They stood by me and helped me in every possible way. I profusely thank each one of them.

Finally, I thank sincerely our Chief Guest, Honb'le Prof. Ramakrishna Ramaswamy, Vice Chancellor of University of Hyderabad, for his valuable presence today at the 88th College Day Function.

Thank you one and all.

COLLEGE DAY ADDRESS

It has taken forty years for me to come back to Loyola College and I now remember that the last time I was in Bertram Hall, I was sitting somewhere over there writing an examination in Chemistry, sweating because there were no fans at that time. Anyway! That was the memory that came back to me as I came here.

If someone had told me that I would be back at the college after 40 years at the College Day celebration, I do not think I would have believed them. But I must say that I am pleased to be here and actually very proud of this college.

I was a student here from 1969 to 1972 and like all students you do not quite realize the role that the college plays in your life. I did my share of wild things. I lived in the hostel. Most of my time was spent in the tea shop outside. I wish I could tell you that I was one of the very dedicated students but I was not. But I did not do too badly. So, you know when one remembers the time in Loyola, I was trying to remember what is the best thing about the college.

Prof. RAMAKRISHNA RAMASWAMY Vice Chancellor, University of Hyderabad

When I entered college in 1969, one of the first big events was the landing of man on the moon. It was declared a holiday so that we could all listen to the radio when Neil Armstrong stepped on the moon. And I think, we were probably the only college that declared the day off, a holiday for this purpose. It was a very nice thing that I remember, everyone was so excited about these things happening. The college at that time was very focused on a few subjects. Today of course it is a much bigger enterprise. But the one thing that was emphasized then was the importance of research. Not just in Chemistry where there was Fr. Yedanapalli, not just in Mathematics where there was Fr. Racine; there were many departments where the faculty were well known for doing research. That directly and indirectly inspired a lot of us. I was just mentioning again to the Principal and to the Rector that there were so many alumni of Loyola College who had gone on to do research and as a college this is one of the very few in the country that has emphasized the importance of doing research and especially when you are young.

The one thing you have is, a lot of energy, the second thing you have is a lot of time and using both time and energy very effectively is something that Loyola College did. I did a lot of things that changed much of my life and I came from a boarding school and then I was living in the hostel over here, so that was a very formative and very exciting time to be here. I tend not to speak too much.

I want to just acknowledge first of all the importance of these years in your lives. As undergraduates, this is the first time you start making your own decisions and when you start making your own decisions you take a little more control over what you are going to do with the rest of your life. I think that an environment like Loyola which encourages you to think, which encourages independence and imagination. It is an extremely important and valuable thing. You may not realise it now, but in years to come you will realize that this is the time when you started making crucial decisions for yourself which will have to guide you through the rest of your life.

The second thing that I would like to communicate is something that I learnt over here which is the importance of research. Regardless of which subject you work in, it is important to contribute to the body of knowledge. It is always easy to read a text book, today with the internet, you can google anything you want. You can always find information. However it is also our duty as people who are getting educated to contribute to the body of knowledge in the world and the only way in which you can do it is through research and no subject, no field of enquiry can do without it. On our campus, the foundations of some of the best mathematics in this country were laid. On our campus, complete new species of insects were discovered in the Zoology department. On our campus over here, fundamental contributions to catalysis were made in the chemistry laboratories. All these have changed the way in which our country has benefitted. It is clear that there is no subject which cannot benefit from the energy and from the interest of your minds. So I would like to leave you with just this thought that here is an environment which is giving you everything and it is upto us now to contribute back and contribute by the creation of knowledge because that is finally the true wealth of our country. Loyola has been much more than I knew it was to me. I would like to acknowledge that by being here of course today and to share with you my pleasure of being an alumnus of this wonderful institution.

Thank you !

GRADUATION DAY ADDRESS

Dear Graduates, Rev. Fr. Rector, Rev. Fr. Secretary, Rev. Fr. Principal, dignitaries on the dais, teachers, parents and dear students, Vanakkam.

This is the day you have been waiting for. This is the day where you will decide which future course in life you will take. Fr. Principal said that out of 2000, almost every single individual had decided which course to take in life for the future. He said that 47% had been chosen for employment and almost an equal number had decided to go for higher studies. This is a very big achievement; almost 100 % of the students have decided which course to take in life. This speaks of the achievement of this Institution.

A parent and her son came to see me after I had arrived the hotel. I asked the youngster, "Which class are you studying?" and he said, "I'm in the twelfth". I asked him what he would do after that? He said that he would study at Loyola College. This tells us that every child in Chennai or in any other part of the country thinks about this Institution. Many students have been longing to get admission here. But a few are chosen. I congratulate all those who got admission and those who have got their degrees.

Institution builds a person. It is not the building and the mortar that make the Institution. It is the teachers and the students that make the Institution. The credit equally goes to the teachers who have been toiling here molding and shaping the lives of the students. I am told that this Institution is 87 years old and in the next decade, just after a decade, this will be completing a century of service to humanity, to the people of not only Tamilnadu but people from all over the country.

Hon'ble Mr. OSCAR FERNANDEZ

Minister of Road Transport and Highways, and Minister of Labour and Employment, Government of India

India, when we got Independence, we had our own problems: the problem of food scarcity. Food was not available to us. But today I am happy to say, that our farmers have made it possible to produce whatever is required by our population in the country. Our farmers have made it possible for us to grow enough grains in our country making it possible to give it to our population.

Today our Government has taken several bold initiatives to provide education to every child in the country. Our Directive Principles speak of providing education to every child in our country. I never dreamt that one day it will be possible for us to pass a legislation to make education compulsory. Today every child has to go to school otherwise the parents have to answer for that. Yes, it is easy for us to say, a parent is to send their children to school. But can the parents afford to send the children to school. The Government of India has made it possible for the poor children to get free education and to provide employment for those parents who have no means of employment. Hundred days of guaranteed employment to each family: with that the parents will be able to earn something like 15-20 thousand rupees additionally per annum depending on the state.

It is our dream to provide shelter to every family but before that we thought that we made food available to all our people in this country and that is why we have said we will provide wheat and rice to our entire population who are below the poverty line and who are middle class citizens of this country. This enables parents to send their children to school. 10-11 crore children are provided with mid day meals. If you have a disease, the root cause number one is starvation and the second cause - those who have too much to eat also have disease. Our Government has made it possible today for our people to get enough to eat at an affordable price so that they can keep the disease at arms length. Our country is progressing. As the country progresses, we also have to deal with poverty in our country.

Before independence, when Mahatma Gandhi was asked "Why you have to fight for independence, you have such a wonderful Government, the British are ruling you, you have all the protection that you need. Security is available to you; why do you have to fight for independence?" Mahatma Gandhi said, "To provide Social Justice and Economic Freedom". Our people are poor. They should get economic freedom and there is discrimination in the country. We have to free our people from the social stigma, and that has been our fight all these years. To give that strength to our poor people who are suffering from social stigma by giving them the tool. What is the tool? It is the pen. The pen in the hand of a student, in the hand of a youth empowers him/her to stand on his/her own. We are told if a young person who is hungry comes to you, do not give him/her a fish to eat, on the contrary teach him/her to fish, so that he/she will be able to earn and stand on his/her own. When the UPA was started, hardly 7% of the students were able to go to colleges. Today I am happy to say that we have reached upto 18½ % to 19% and by 2020, we will be able to send atleast 30% of our youth to the Universities. Ekalavya was a youth who wanted to learn under Dronacharya. He did not accept him as his student. Ekalavya learnt on his own. Today 70% of our youth really want to go to the Universities and Colleges. But they cannot afford nor do we have the infrastructure for this kind of facility required by the students. We will have to open new Universities. We will have to provide technical education for our youth. There are ample opportunities not only in our country, but in the whole world for employment. Employability is the main thing required.

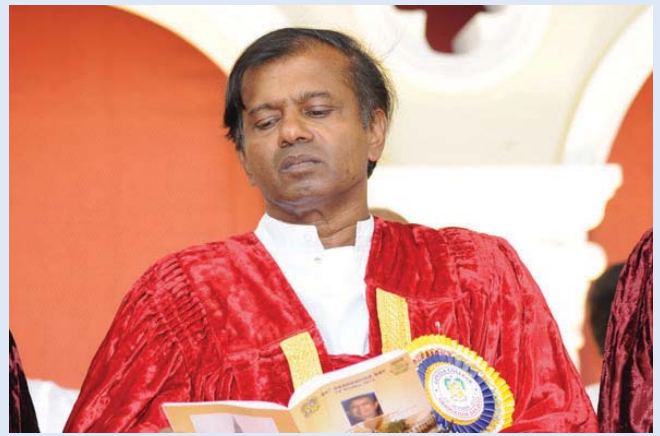

An incident takes place as you are going home. You have a chance to see the incident. How many of us ponder and take a pen and write an article on that?

You are inspired by looking at somebody. How many of you will take your pen and write a song or a poem? Many of you are asked to give a lecture. How many of you can come and stand on the dais and speak. I had a test in the V form. I was asked to speak on that occasion. My sisters were prompting me how to speak. So when I went on the stage, I said 'regretted sir' instead of 'respected sir'. That was the beginning of getting into oratory. How many of us can do that?

Are you willing to get to a discussion. If you can get into a discussion, do you have the material with you to discuss? You must have the knowledge. Today you are far better equipped than what we were equipped. In our days there were a lot of agitations going on in the Universities and Colleges. We were attending a college function. the chief guest looked at the students and said, "Students, do you know that when we were studying in schools and colleges we never used to throw stones at buses. The students were all taken aback. Then he said, "Do you know why? Could you say why?, because during that period there were no buses so they did not throw stones at buses. In our time, we never used television. In our time, we never used computers. And do you know why, we never had computers, we never had television sets. Today, each one has a different gadget. Today you have laptop, a computer on the table and a mobile. What is happening? What will happen today evening? You don't have to read the newspaper tomorrow. All that you have to do is to press the button and the mobile will tell you what is happening. How many people died, even before the newspapers will reflect on that, you will have the news with us. A civil engineering student came to me. I said, "Tell me the height of Kutab Minar. He did not know the answer. I asked him, "Have you got a mobile?" "Yes Sir". "Then tell me the height of Kutab Minar". He took the mobile and said "233 Mtrs".

The knowledge is at the finger tips of all of you. Keep working. The challenge before you is to acquire more knowledge and if you have more knowledge, your ability to negotiate improves. Within a year the students who are studying in this Institution will call you in the Bengali way "Dhadha" means Senior. So before you are called elderly dhadha, try to remain young, acquire more knowledge and strengthen yourself to face the challenges in life. I'd like to recall the message given to us by late Shri. Rajiv Gandhi. who said, youth get ready to enter into 21st century. India by 2020 is going to be one of the top most economies in the world, and if India has to be a top economy in the world, your contribution has to be there. You have to make India proud. Equipping yourself with knowledge and it will make India strong. Today when one child in India goes for higher education 100 children in China go for higher education. We have to take this challenge. I am not saying that we should challenge China. But we have to take India to the Himalayan heights. India has to be a strong nation. India's economy has to be strong and that depends on your earning capacity.

In the field of education, I am sorry to say that not even one University is among the top 100 in the world. Not one University of ours. And the reason being, they say, we do not do enough of research.

Life is like a long voyage. Life is like a bubble on the water. Any moment it can burst and life will be over. So it is for you to make whatever time is available to you to bring credit to your parents who have sent you to this Institution for education. You must thank the country for giving you this education and we have to make our country proud.

Thank you. Jai Hind !

PHILOSOPHY

A. CHRONOLOGICAL EVENTS OF 2012-2013

Meeting at Kothagiri, Ooty in June, 2012: Continuing with the rewarding program of both the Administrative and Academic Staff Gathering, this year too we met once again at Kothagiri during the second week of June in the same Retreat House run by the Canossian Sisters and had a fruitful time reviewing both the community life, activities and the academic programs and events. From our introspection and sharing, we narrowed down to the need for 'clarity in our formation at Satya Nilayam.' Just like last year staff colloquium yield the fruit of focusing on the 'quality of Jesuit formation', this year reflections helped us to focus clearly on the need for 'clarity in the significance of Intellectual Dimension' of our philosophical stage of formation. This particular insight into what we need to focus during the academic year geared us to prepare in advance the monthly recollections and other such activities in the campus.

INAUGURAL DAY FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2012-2013

On 18.06.2012 Former Archbishop Rt. Rev. Dr. Chinnappa, SDB officiated the Mass of the Holy Spirit and invoked His blessings upon us. Later, Rev. Dr. Michael Amaladoss, SJ, Director, IDCR, Loyola delivered the inaugural address on "The Role of Philosophy in Life and Formation".

Chennai Darshan for the New Entrants: Since the composition of students of our department is somewhat national and international, the department organized a day of exposure to the city of Madras (Chennai Darshan) for the first year students who hail from various parts of South East Asia on 23rd Saturday, June, 2012.

English Diagnostic Test for the New Entrants: EDT on 7th July, Prof. A. Joseph Dorairaj of the Department of English Literature from Gandhigram Rural University, Gandhigram conducted an English Diagnostic Test (EDT) for our first year M.A. students. Later he gave us a brief profile of the 36 members who appeared for this test of their "Linguistic Competence in Reading, Writing, Listening and Comprehending of English Language," along with some suggestions for a consistent remedial program for the deserving ones throughout the academic year.

Pilgrimage St. Thomas Mount National Shrine: As per our tradition, both the Staff and Students went for a Pilgrimage St. Thomas Mount National Shrine on 2nd Saturday, July, 2012 and offered a holy Eucharist, apart from learning about the spiritual and apostolic significance of the early arrival of Thomas to India, one of the Twelve Apostles of Christ himself in the very first century of Christian Era.

Foreign Language Courses Offered: On 12th July, 2012, some of our students began learning in the afternoon hours, one of the two foreign languages offered (Spanish and French) by Mrs. Carem, a native Spanish speaker from Spain and Prof. G. Xavier Raj, a former president of the French Teachers' Association of Alliance Francis, Chennai.

Departmental Open Forum: As directed and scheduled by the IQAC of Loyola College, the department conducted on 18th October, its first Open Forum for the academic year for its students along with the Teaching Staff at the end of the I & III Semesters. Great many suggestions given by the students have been well acknowledged and taken for further improvement of teaching - learning methods followed in the department. Certain infra-structural needs and administrative constraints were very maturely expressed by the student representatives for a smooth functioning.

Republic Day Celebration: Staff and Students celebrate the Republic Day of our Country on 26th January of every year. This year too, in solidarity with the Indian Citizens spread throughout the country, the Department made sure that the Republic Day of our Nation is celebrated. This year Thiru Peter Raj hoisted the flag and, Sch. Royal Saldhana delivered the Republic Day Message to the Gathering.

Visit of Cardinal Grocholewski, Prefect of Catholic Education, to LOYOLA COLLEGE, Chennai, on February 04, 2013. Department of Philosophy which is equally considered as one of the 7 Catholic Ecclesiastical Faculties in India, had a special report to present before the Cardinal along with few more Catholic Institutes dedicated to Higher Level of Learning.

Visiting Scholars: All of us were aware of the presence of two noted scholars amidst us during the last and first week of July and August respectively, Prof. William Sweet and Dr. Rajesh Sampath. Their presence and sharing were enriching both to the students and the staff. They have left us with an assurance of further collaboration in some of the viable research projects.

Grateful Acknowledgement to Frank Clooney of Harvard, US: "Lawrence, George, I am owed books by Oxford University Press, for reading manuscripts for them. I can get books up to the price of $750, about 470 British pounds. I was thinking that since I do not really need more books, I would like to donate books to Satya Nilayam. Interested? If so, you could look at the online catalogue at <http://ukcatalogue.oup.com/category/academic/religion.do> and come up with books for me to buy, and give me a list – in philosophy or related fields - and then the press would send them to Satya Nilayam. I would need: title and author, ISBN, and price, preferably in dollars, adding up to as near as possible to $750 as possible. Let me know what you would like to do...

B. HIGHLIGHT OF THIS ACADEMIC YEAR 2012-2013

- Credit Based Semester System – PG Restructured Syllabus is approved and executed from this academic year. Accordingly, Learning Soft Skills, Incorporating the Summer Exposures in the Credit System, Introduction of Self-Study Paper and the special incorporation of our scholastics Guided Weekly Ministries under the LEAP of Loyola have been successfully done.
- NAAC Peer Team Visit: Along with the whole Loyola Fraternity, Department of Philosophy participated fully in the ongoing preparation for a NAAC Peer Team Visit on 20th September, 2012 at Loyola. Along with the Staff, Students, we did a magnificent job of show-casing the various unique features, activities and achievements of the Department of Philosophy, under the autonomous structure of Loyola College.
- Introduction of Latin Course as Part of the Foreign Language Courses (FLC): As per the new requirement of the Roman Document, we have introduced Latin for our first year students from this academic year. It is done for 4 credits. “Teaching – Learning – and Evaluation” module has been incorporated into this course. Prof. Xavier Raj, former HOD of Department of Foreign Languages, Loyola has handled this course. For the following years Rev. Fr. Stephen Ekka of the M.P. Province will handle the course.
- Qualifying the Qualified – M. Ph Degree in view of Professorship: In spite of acquiring an M.A. and a Ph. D through the secular Universities, since new requirements are placed before the teachers in the Ecclesiastical Faculties, JDV and SN are collaborating with each other by way of awarding M. Ph Degree for our staff members who fulfill certain requirements approved by the Academic Councils of these two Faculties of Philosophy. Rev. Dr. James Ponnaiah of the JDV faculty has already fulfilled such requirements and has been awarded the degree of M. Ph from our Faculty. Three of us, Frs. E.P. Mathew, Lawrence and George V.S are nearly completing the requirements and will be ready soon for applying for the Professorship.
- Dedication of Peter Hans Kolvenbach Library & Manresa Hall: Last but not the least is the birth of a New-Infrastructural Facility of Peter Hans Kolvenbach Library & Manresa Hall in the Satya Nilayam Campus. Thanks to the whole hearted effort of the whole Society of Jesus along with its Benefactors, generous consent of Fr. POSA and his consultants, meticulous planning and execution by Fr. Rector and the SN Jesuit Community, dedicated and timely support of Mr. Sahadass and his Perpetual Builders Team along with Madam Banu Lawrence, we have this wonderful gift of Peter Hans Kolvenbach Library and Manresa Hall. From 1980s we see every decade something new happening in the Satya Nilayam Campus. Creation of 56 rooms in the existing Aruppe Hall and the whole new spatial availability of a decent meeting hall, rooms and cubicles for guides and researchers, reference section students, scholars and staff of our Faculty, stack room for the old and new books uniquely available for the subject of Philosophy, numbering nearly 65000, is surely an memorable contribution to the present and future generations of Jesuit and Non-Jesuit trainees in this campus. I place on record with tremendous gratitude all persons, including the number of laborers and their families, along with all the technical and bureaucratic teams involved in making this monumental dream real. We eagerly pray and await the completion with an official stamp of approval from the CMDA, Chennai.

C - STAFF/STUDENTS ACADEMIC PROGRAMMES

SESSIONS/SEMINARS/SPECIAL LECTURES AND OTHER INITIATIVES

Seminars/Lectures/Sessions Organized and Attended by the Whole Department:

One day Inter-departmental and Inter-institutional Seminar (Dept. of Philosophy, Dept. of Visual Communication and LIFE, Ranchi), at Loyola College, 11 January 2013 was organized at Loyola College on the title of THE REALITY OF MEDIA: Narrated/Celebrated/Constructed. Rev. Dr. Gaston Roberge, St. Xavier's, Kolkata delivered an apt and inspiring keynote address. Rev. Fr. Lourduraj Ignacimuthu, Director, Lievan's Institute of Film and Electronics, Ranchi was present and read out a researched paper. Five papers presented during the seminar highlighted the various nuances of this theme thus invoking greater curiosity and response among our student participants. Rev. Fr. Valerian, our younger staff member convened the seminar as his maiden effort and organized it efficiently with the help of our students and staff. Several young and old media personnel were there to share their experiences, viewpoints and suggestions. We thank in a special way Rev. Dr B. Jeyaraj, SJ, the Principal of Loyola College (Autonomous) for his support and encouragement in organizing this seminar and Prof. Dr S. Vincent, Dean of Research, for the financial assistance in organizing this seminar.

PHILOSOPHIZING SESSIONS ORGANIZED

Session 1: July 2012 – Robin S. Seelan: First of the Four Philosophizing Sessions for the Academic Year First Philosophizing Session was held on 20th July, 2012 (Friday). The resource person was Dr. Robin. S. Seelan S.J., the new faculty member of Satya Nilayam and the topic was “Encountering Evil: The Seen and beyond the Seen.”

Session 2: August 2012 – Stephen Martin: Second Philosophizing Session for the Academic Year was held on 18th September on theme of “Power-Shift in Media: A Critical Inquiry”.

Session 3: November 2012 – Chris Lowney: Third Philosophizing Session 13th November our students and staff was truly a blessing in disguise. With the help of Rev. Dr. Emmanuel of LIBA, we had a long session Ignatian Insights and Corporate Management Principles by the author of Heroic Leadership, Dr. Chris Lowney, USA. It was really an awesome participatory experience with an expert in Ignatian Pedagogy.

Session 4: March 2013 – E.P. Mathew: Fourth of the Philosophizing Session One Session Envisaged in the form of Memorial Lectures too, like what we did for Sch. Loy Fernandes last academic year. Dr. E.P. Mathew will be working on a socially relevant theme of Castes at Cross-roads – Seeking Clarity: A Jesuit Perspective.

QUALITATIVE EVOLUTION OF DISSERTATION (PROJECT WORK) WRITING

At the end of the fourth semester each student submits a dissertation of about 5000 words. The dissertation is written under the guidance of a professor on any major philosophical theme offered in the first cycle. Philosophers and Philosophies Incorporated in Shaping the Dissertations: In tune with the suggestion offered last academic year by the Teaching Staff, our second year students got ready with various themes for their Dissertations choosing only some significant Philosophers and Philosophies. Fr. Paul Raj, after some home work, made the major topics suggested both by the students and the staff available in a single sheet, thus helping the students to narrow down on their topic for dissertation. In order to integrate and deepen the subject of their choice, the students are expected to expose the theme of their choice and their findings in two expositions before the class before submitting their dissertation. The Second year students had their First Exposition to the whole class in November. During this exposition, the students explain to the class the philosophical and contextual significance of the topics chosen, the proposed methodology in collecting the data and a list of standard bibliography for the same topic. In continuation with the same effort after an initial exploration on the chosen theme, the students once again do their- Second Exposition in the beginning of February. During this second exposition, students enumerated the- significant findings, difficulty met with during their search for relevant materials and the ways and means through which they overcame were shared transparently. Such inbuilt mechanism of exposure of students to the larger class, along with the presence of the professors has done immense good to the students in improving the seriousness of their search for knowledge. From this academic year, with great care the Faculty has made the internal evaluation stricter and more accountable by introducing an evaluative component (the guide assessing the performance of the student for 30 marks and another internal Assessor offering 20 marks out of the 50 marks allotted for the internal assessment). As part of the Loyola Examination System, for greater objectivity, the dissertations are given to the external examiners for the rest of the 50 marks.

Inter-faculty/Inter-departmental Exposures and Seminars: For the last three academic years SHC-SN has been collaborating with faculties like Arulkadal, Department of Christian Studies, Department of Philosophy- University of Madras, Departments of Philosophy – MCC and Vivekananda Colleges, Asian Centre for Cross-cultural Studies, LIFE, Viscom, Social Work, IDCR of Loyola College etc by organizing joint-faculty Seminars and Workshops. Such collaborative and strategic networking will definitely benefit both the staff and the student. This trend will really fulfill a part of the early dream of our fore-fathers who discerned and shifted Sacred Heart College from the Kodi Hills to Thiruvanniyur plains of Chennai region.

STUDENTS IN FREE ENTERPRISE

Greetings from ENACTUS (SIFE) Loyola!

EN•ACT•US

A community of student, academic and business leaders committed to using the power of entrepreneurial action to transform lives and shape a better more sustainable world.

Entrepreneurial—having the perspective to see an opportunity and the talent to create value from that opportunity;

Action—the willingness to do something and the commitment to see it through even when the outcome is not guaranteed;

Us—a group of people who see themselves connected in some important way; individuals that are part of a greater whole.

Our Faculty Advisor, Dr. J.M.V. Kalaiarasi took immense efforts in contributing to the tremendous projects which brought about economically sustainable opportunities for upliftment of the downtrodden.

After addressing a predominant issue and with various challenges, we came up with the project PRODUSE. Project PRODUSE aims at streamlining the production, supply and marketing of products and to produce in an indigenous manner so that a self sufficient community is established. The generation of employment and supplementary income along with a resultant depreciation in the prices of everyday necessities, increase the quality and standard of living for the impoverished and underprivileged communities. By implementing this project, we achieved an upliftment in their life-style by not only increasing their income but also by reducing their expenditure. The supplementary income was increased by methods like mushroom cultivation, candle-making, artificial flower/bouquet making. We could reduce their daily expenditures by 20% and increase their supplementary income by about Rs.4000. Thereby, we also helped in increasing the savings of these people and equipping them with the skills, knowledge and therefore confidence for long term independence.

ACTIVITY

- a. Biodiversity: Insect collection and identification (Diversity of butterflies, bees, spiders and lepidopteran (nocuidae) moths from Kodaikanal and Nilgiris are carried out to generate data for future use.
- b. Biopesticides: New botanical pesticides using natural, essential and volatile oils from plants are formulated and tested against several agricultural and vector insect pests both in the laboratory and field. It is distributed to the farmers. Women farmers are trained to prepare biopesticides.
- c. Biological Control: Beneficial insects which are useful as biocontrol agents are collected and identified.
- d. Molecular Biology: Using molecular techniques, variations in populations of both insects and plants are identified and used in phylogenetic analysis. PCR, RFLP and RAPD techniques are routinely employed.
- e. Microbiology: Bioactive molecules isolated from plants and microbes are screened for their antibacterial, antiviral, antimycobacterial and antifungal activities. Many microorganisms from marine environment are also screened for their enzyme production and other useful parameters.
- f. Genetic Engineering: Genetic engineering of many cereals and pulses is being pursued with a view to producing insect resistant crops. Fungal resistant crops are also raised.
- g. Tissue Culture: Endangered plants are raised through tissue culture and rehabilitate.
- h. Biochemistry: Studies related to treating diabetes, cancer, obesity and inflammation using plant compounds are taken up. Various biochemical parameters are assessed.
- i. Medicinal Chemistry: Medicinal plants are collected and active biochemical molecules are isolated and their structures are elucidated.
- j. Ethnobotany: Collection and documentation of information on traditionally used medicinal plants from tribal people and herbal healers from different parts of Tamil Nadu are done. Herbarium is preserved in the institute herbaria. Rare and endangered medicinal plants (nursery) are grown at our garden and are supplied to the local and tribal healers with a view to conserving the flora.
- k. Extension Programme: Training programmes are conducted for the benefit of the farmers on sustainable agriculture and environmental protection. . Training on preparation of botanical pesticides and vermicopost is provided to farmers and SHGs.
