Resource Centre for Differently Abled (RCDA) & Model Resource Centre of Disability Services (MRCDS)

Intercollegiate Cultural and Sports meet for Visually Challenged students was organized by RCDA & MRCDS, Loyola College, Chennai on 4th March 2015. Nearly hundred visually challenged students of various Colleges actively participated in the programme. Inaugural function was presided over by Rev. Dr. G. Joseph Antony Samy, S.J., Principal of the College. Mr. Kirupanandham, Regional Director, NIVH (National Institute for Visually Handicapped), Poonamalle was the Chief Guest for the Inaugural.

Prayer song
Lighting the Kuthuvilakku

Rev. Fr. Principal greets the NIVH Director

Inauguration of the Programme
Competitions, such as JAM (Just a minute), Singing, Spelling game were held in the morning session. Sports events, such as Discuss Throw and Running race were held in the afternoon.
Ms. Rhythvika, cine actress, was the chief guest for the valedictory. Mr. Senthil, Trustee of Help the Blind Foundation, Chennai congratulated the winners with a motivational speech.
The programme was well appreciated by the participants and concluded with National anthem by 5.00 pm.