

Justice C.T. Selvam

Justice C.T. Selvam hails from the family of law practitioners. His grand father Rao Bahadur Sir.A.T. Pannirselvam was popularly known for his involvement and reputation in Indian Independence struggle and political leadership as M.L.A and Minister of home and finance. Justice C.T. Selvam practiced the virtues and values that he learned in Loyola college campus, Chennai from the year 1978 to 1981 when he did P.U.C. and B.Com. He also served Karnataka Bank and Central Bank of India as legal officer. His career aggrandizement from the position as additional Central Government standing counsel to additional Judge of Madras high court reflects his high degree of nobility and integrity. Now, his Alma matter, Loyola College takes pride in conferring him with the best achiever in the promotion of justice in the society at large.

We congratulate him upon his untiring effort to prove his mettle.