

Mr. Pattabhi Sundar Raman

Mr. Pattabhi Sundar Raman, the younger son of former Advocate-General and Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam politician V. P. Raman, is alumnus of Loyola College. He graduated in commerce from Loyola College. During his term as a student of PUC and B. Com from 1971 to 1981, he excelled in academics and cricket. Then, he obtained his law degree from the Madras Law College. He was the first winner from Madras Law College of All India Philip Jessop Moot Court in 1984.

He started practising as a lawyer in 1985 and founded the law firm Raman and Associates in 1991. Simultaneously, he practised in the Madras High Court and the Supreme Court of India.

He was, further, designated a senior advocate of Madras High Court in 2004. Then, in 2006, Mr. Raman was appointed Additional Advocate-General. He became the Advocate-General in 2009.

He is an avid cricket enthusiast. His other interests are reading, music, and physical fitness. He is also involved with other NGOs such as The Banyan.

Loyola congratulates Mr. P S Raman upon his accomplishments as an advocate, lover of sports, and social worker. Truly he is a versatile personality,