

Mr. N. Ram

Mr. N. Ram, Chairman and Publishers of the Hindu group of News papers was born in 1945. Hailing from a noble family he was exposed to the professional back ground at an early age. His first assignment as associate editor of the Hindu elevated him to start new ventures of launching Frontline, Sport star and Business line. He received his B.A in History from Loyola College, Chennai. His stay at Loyola College influenced his perceptions and out look towards his professional life. His Journalistic spirit and passion propelled him to reform Indian nation politically, economically and socially. He was honoured with Badma Bhusan, Sri Lanka Ratna, Asian Investigative Journalist, B.D. Goenka, Freedom of Information, XLRI's first JRD Tata awards and Alumni award 2003 from Columbia University.

Congratulations to Mr. N. Ram, an illustrious alumnus for leading and inspiring others.