

Prof. C. Ponnappan

Prof. C. Ponnappan, an alumnus of Loyola College was graduated and post graduated in Economics in 1960. He joined as Lecturer in AM Jain College. Meanwhile, he secured D.H.Ed., diploma in Labour Law and Administrative Law and a research degree.

He dedicated his time also in Co-curricular /Extra-curricular activities like Planning Forum, SSL, NSS. He has held the position of NCC officer, Vice Principal, Evening College, HOD Economics Department, Deputy Warden and above all, Principal (1992-96). He has coauthored books - Macro and Micro Economics, Monetary Economics, History of Economic Thought. He has been examiner, member of Board of Studies for many universities and colleges. He has organized various NSS camps and Blood Donation camps.

Further, he has served as the first principal in Shree Chandra Prabhu Jain College and served as Honorary Director, planning & Development, AM Jain College.

Loyola College feels proud of Prof. C. Ponnappan who has been a devout academician, able administrator and go-getter.