Parent Teacher Meet

During the Parent Teacher Meet held at Bertram Hall on July 23, 2016, counsellors from Loyola Counselling Center, Ms. Yazhini and Mr. J. Prince addressed the parents on strengths of the late teens and the challenges which are faced by them and also on the issues of how counseling can be of help. In the course of their talks, the various facets and interventions in counseling were explained, stressing the need for parental compliance and support in the wholesome development of their wards.
