Another milestone in the history of the Department of English, Loyola College, Chennai - the Silver Jubilee celebration of COFFEE HOUSE - brewing and spreading the intellectual aroma from the year 1987. The esteemed faculty and the students of the department gathered at the Lawrence Sundaram Auditorium on 13.12.2013 to witness the annual extravaganza. Rev. Fr. Albert William, the Secretary blessed the occasion. Dr. Abimanyu Acharya, an eminent academician, HR consultant and an eloquent speaker presided over the function. A book titled ‘Applied Literary Criticism’ authored by Dr. D. Louis Joseph Chandra, The Head of the Department of English, was released by the Chief Guest during the function. The students from various colleges in the city actively participated in the day-long department festival and won several prizes.