

Special sessions and Model Tests for Arrear students

IICD offers (twelve) special sessions and model tests for the UG students belonging to “05” and period batches in their arrear papers.

For the present final year students (06-batch) special sessions and model tests are offered under the following conditions.

- (i) Preference will be given to those students who have three and more than three arrear papers.
- (ii) Only papers from I and III semesters are offered now.
- (iii) All the 12 special sessions and model tests should be completed before the second internal tests begin.
- (iv) Special sessions and model tests will be offered by Lecturers who are not handling those papers at present.
