INAUGURATION OF THE DEPT. OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES

REPORT PRESENTED BY Dessama Kjeld Sreshth Sutan (09-FR-009)

The program started with lot of energy and enthusiasm amongst the students on a fresh sunny morning. The function was presided by Chief Guest Mr. Jean-Baptiste Suchet who is a representative of ICAM.

The Event began with a prayer song sung by our students followed by the Welcome Address by the president of the association Prof. Krishna Veni and a short introduction about the chief guest to make him more familiar to the students. Mr. Jean-Baptiste Suchet was then asked to take over the session. He started by voicing his support for the learning of foreign languages and went on to approve the enthusiasm of the students. He also talked of the importance of learning foreign languages in today’s world dominated by globalization.

It was also formally announced that the following students

- Dessama Kjeld Sreshth Sutan of third year B.A. French lit.
- Fanis Hadrian of second year B.A. French lit.
- Kevin Thomas of first year Commerce were elected to the posts of department secretary and joint secretaries for French respectively.

- Lijo P.J of first year commerce was also elected as the secretary for German.

This was then followed by a formal speech made by the Head of the department of foreign languages Mrs. Rebecca George who encouraged all students of Loyola College to take the foreign language courses offered seriously not only for the benefit of the college but for the students of our college as well.

The event was then followed by a small play done by the students of B.A. French lit. based on the story of “Le Curé de Cucugnan” which was well received by the students while snacks were being served to them. The program ended on a happy note with the vote of thanks and the National Anthem.
