We, the students of Physics Department (shift-1 Hostellers) 2nd year, Loyola College, cleaned Loyola tuition centre and its surrounding at police boys club, Jeganathapuram, Chetpet on September 25, 2011.

We cleaned the dirty place to keep it neat and tidy for the slum children to study well. We did this work with the support and guidance of Mr. Ramesh, the Sub Inspector, G-7 Police Station, Chetpet, Mr. Shankar, the Scout Master, Dr. Anand, Coordinator, Department of outreach and Youth of Jeganathapuram helped us in cleaning the Loyola study centre and its surroundings.

We, the 12 hostellers along with the local youth began our work at 9.00am and completed it at 1.00pm. People generously provided us with broom and rake and other necessary articles. We all gave our best to clean the place to make a better ambience to study. The people of Jeganathapuram indeed were inspired and complimented the untiring work of our students and excellent effort of outreach department of Loyola College.
Outreach Students fully Involved in cleaning the Loyola study Centre and its Surroundings.

Students were with broom and rake in their hands in the mission.
Loading and unloading of the garbage by Loyola students.
The guidance and motivation was given by Dr. E. Anand, Coordinator, Department of outreach.

The support were given by Mr. Ramesh, the sub inspector of Police, G-7 police station, Chetpet and Mr. Shankar, the scout master, Chetpet.
Organizing Committee

Kishen
Gnanavel
Vijayaraghavan
Paul Mathew
Charles
Tom James
Ashok Kumar
Vinoth Kumar
Ajay
Jesu Raj
Raghul
John Kamilas