MANAGING ONLINE CLASSES AND CO-CREATING MOOCS 2.0

18 MAY - 01 JUNE, 2020

The Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD) launched the Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching (PMMMNMTT) in 2017. One of the main objectives of this mission is to facilitate teacher training by constituting Teaching Learning Centers in various institutions of higher education in our country. The Teaching Learning Centers (TLCs) are mandated to promote on a continuous basis the learning of new pedagogical practices, methodology of forming discipline-specific curricula and creating new learning materials (including e-content) for use by the teachers in colleges and postgraduate departments. It is envisioned that the TLCs will accelerate the teaching-learning process by encouraging independent critical and creative thinking and facilitating research for subject-specific growth.

The TLCs will assist the faculty in capacity building for curriculum designing, scientific assessment and evaluation and the development of innovative academic programs to strengthen the inclusive nature of higher education. The TLCs are also encouraged to reach out to teachers teaching in regionally disadvantaged locations.

The Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission emphasizes the need to change the role and workings of a teacher from a mere disseminator of information and knowledge to the one who helps students to develop critical, analytical skills, capabilities to generate information, the ability to reason and to empower themselves through open sources and globally oriented digitalized self-learning processes. The focus is not only on 'what is taught' but also importantly, to 'the way it is taught,' in an effort to develop and enhance individual education, that will eventually go on to define the manner in which the future generations will work and live.

The Teaching Learning Centers offer Faculty Induction Programs (FIPs) for newly recruited faculty and Faculty Development Programs (FDPs) for teachers with experience who wish to update their field of knowledge, expertise and skill with the latest available research, resources and technology. In the FDPs, special emphasis is given to inter and cross-disciplinary methodologies of study.

Currently, the teaching fraternity is missing their lively and interactive classrooms due to COVID-19 Pandemic. To address the present situation, the University Grants Commission (UGC) has intensified its efforts to have a strong virtual engagement with the students through email/WhatsApp and hosting lectures using Google Class Room and other video-conferencing platforms. Keeping in view the immense benefits and reach of online courses in the present academic set-up, the Teaching Learning Centre along with Research Development and Services Cell at Ramanujan College, University of Delhi plans to offer a Two Week Faculty Development Programme on “Managing Online Classes and Co-Creating MOOCS 2.0” for faculty members and research scholars of higher education in the country from 18th May- 01st June, 2020.

With the advent of technology, e-learning is rapidly gaining importance and momentum. With the government aiming at digitizing India with its “Digital India” Initiative, educational institutions are also working in tandem to help fulfill the goal.

Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) are rapidly gaining popularity not only amongst students but also among faculty members because it helps them in their professional development and also gives them the flexibility to study as per their own convenience and time. Online courses serve as a bridge between the teachers and the learners and fill the gap for the off-site learners. It is a great initiative to provide blended learning for millions of students and teachers across the globe. MOOCs create the opportunity for sharing the ideas and knowledge and also helps improve lifelong learning skills by providing easy access to global resources.

MOOCs have truly revamped the teaching pedagogy by using technology as a tool to design the new pavement for academic growth. With this program, the participants will be able to explore the usage of online courses for learning, teaching and professional development and also build their capability to plan, design and implement online courses that are in tune with international standards. This will help them to manage their curriculum and also in extending effective support to the students in terms of improved learning and communication. In addition to this, MOOCs would also provide analytics to improve learning. MOOCs also help in improving cross cultural relationships which leads to collaboration between institution, educators and learners locally and internationally.
