

Guest Lecture Series – Topic: The Evolution of International Law and National Jurisprudence: A French Experience

Venue: MCA Smart Room

Date: 21 September 2023

Time: 4.40 to 6.30 PM

Speaker: Ms. Liliam Mariana Boti Llanes

Ms. Liliam Mariana Boti Llanes is an experienced Freelance Writer with a demonstrated history of working in the legal services industry. Skilled in Negotiation, Art, Corporate Law, Management, and Visual Arts, she is strong media and communication professional with an Art Appraisal Expert degree from Faculty of Arts and Science of Conservation, Universidad del Museo Social Argentino. She was also a member of the Paris Bar in France and has been working freelance in Spain, Argentina, Czech Republic, Cuba and Portugal.

The event began with welcoming the guest lecturer, Ms. Liliam Mariana Boti Llanes, and the students from the department of International Relations and Sociology. A small brief about the guest's work experience was given, followed by a token of gratitude given by a student from the department of international relations for appreciating her presence. The lecture started by addressing overseas collectives, which refer collectively to all land under French sovereignty outside of mainland France. It was explained that France has more potential in maritime policy-making as they control the sea through other territories.

