International Day of Peace

The Department of International Relations organized an awareness event for the International Day of Peace on September 21st, 2023.The significance of the event lay in an uptick of wars globally, and the dire need in understanding the human consequences of war through remembrance events on an annual basis. This event was organized in collaboration with the Department of Counselling Psychology in Loyola College, Chennai. The organizers of the event were the Office Bearers of Department of International Relations (Especially the Event Managers (Divine Angel and Arul Braighta) and the Joint Secretary (Mohammed Thoufeeq).

The awareness event consisted of distributing stickers to the students for increasing awareness and distributing bookmarks to the other Department Staffs to commemorate the day.

A human chain was also formed by the students of International Relations and Counselling Psychology. The distribution of stickers and the formation of the human chain took place during break hours (4:15pm- 4:40pm).

The event concluded at 4:40pm with the end of the break period for students.
