GUEST LECTURE ON UNSAFE HIRING –A REPORT

The Department of Business Administration of Loyola College conducted a guest lecture on the topic "Failsafe Hiring" on July 26, 2024, in Beschi Hall. The event commenced with a prayer song, followed by the Tamizh Thai Vazhthu, setting a respectful and dignified tone for the proceedings.

The gathering was welcomed by Vikrm E Treasurer of Business Administrative Forum .

The chief guest Mr.Raghunath Ramaswamy was introduced by Dr.N.C.Martin organizer of the event and assistant professor of the BBA department.

The chief guest was later felicitated by Mr.A.Austin Xavier Amirtharaj (Coordinator of BBA department) along with president Dr.Ceciliya jothi muthu with a shawl and memento.

Mr. Raghunath Ramaswamy captivated the audience with an engaging speech that began with a discussion about the remarkable catch in the World Cup, posing thought-provoking questions on whether it was a stroke of luck or skill.

This interactive segment energized the audience, encouraging participation and lively discussion. He further delved into the theme of human interdependence, illustrating his points with images of everyday necessities like toothbrushes and toothpaste, highlighting how much we rely on others in our daily lives.

The seminar concluded with the speaker promoting his business and sharing invaluable insights into his entrepreneurial journey. His compelling narrative provided inspiration and practical advice, leaving the attendees motivated and equipped with actionable strategies for their own professional endeavors.

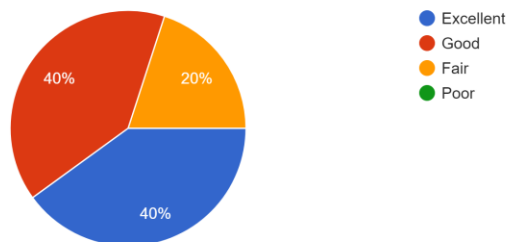

Mr.Ashfaq , Joint secretary extended his gratitude towards the guest speaker and the audience present on behalf of the BBA Department by delivering the vote of thanks.
