

REPORT ON THE WORKSHOP CONDUCTED ON PUBLISHING RESEARCH MANUSCRIPTS IN GLOBALLY INDEXED JOURNALS

On the 09th of April 2022, the School of Commerce & Economics organized a workshop on the topic of “Publishing Research manuscripts in Globally Indexed Journals” at the Conference Hall of the college and around 30 faculty members from the Commerce, Economics and English departments of the college actively participated. Dr. R. Vijay Solomon, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, Madras Christian College, Chennai was the resource person. The objective of the workshop was to share the rules for writing research articles in international indexed journals.

The program began with an invocation by Dr.J.Justin Rayappa, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce. Dr. A. Marcus, Chairperson of the workshop welcomed the gathering. Dr. A. Vickram, Convenor presented the dynamics and the intent of the workshop. Dr.Elango Parimalam, Head, Department of Economics introduced the resource person.

The following points were discussed and highlighted by Dr. R. Vijay Solomon, during the workshop:

- Pre-requisite elements of publication in international indexed journals.
- Assessment of participants’ knowledge on the impact factor and the fake journals.
- Skills required for individuals to write articles in international journals.
- Differences of writing articles in domestic and international journals
- Challenges of writing the sections of abstract, introduction, and methodology
- Writing the results, conclusion, discussion, and references sections.
- Examination of the above in the context of international journals.
- Carrying out meaningful research inputs to design manuscripts
- Assessing journals under Web of Science regarding commerce and economics discipline
- Need to identify and establish a logical framework for research publication.
- Reasons for rejection of a research article
- Research article components, functions, and preferred writing style.
- Rules for writing the subsections of a research article.

Dr. R. Vijay Solomon supplied worksheets and engaged the participants on an interesting discussion based on the responses given by them. The Q & A session was very interesting and informative, and all the doubts were clarified with lucid responses. The workshop ended with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr. V. Arockia Jerold, Organising Secretary.
