ABOUT THE EVENT

The department of commerce (shift-2) undertook the initiative to sensitize and bring an awareness in students about various career opportunities a student can choose after graduating from B. Com. In this regard, the department organized a career orientation session highlighting the career prospects in entrepreneurship and law, which so far not thought by only a few students after their graduation. The objective of the session was also to motivate students on being confident and to instill in them an urge to utilize opportunities provided by the college / department.

The session began with a brief introduction to Mr Arshadh Malim, chief guest and alumnus of the department of commerce (shift-2). Mr Arshadh is an advocate in Bestwins Law Corporation, a UAE based law firm that he joined as an intern initially and then went on to become an employee. Mr Arshadh was also the head of Loyola theatre society while pursuing his education in college and he is also the head of Theatre Education department of Evam Entertainment Pvt Ltd. Mr Arshadh pursued his under-graduate in commerce during the year 2012 and served as Event Secretary of the Citizen Consumer Club during the year 2013 and also as the Cultural Secretary of the Commerce Forum during the year 2014.

Mr. Arshadh explained that there were three types of work which were salaried employees, honorary fees for professionals and entrepreneurship. He shared the idea that one could feel their work is monotonous and that is okay, while being conscious of it. The speaker then shared that one must take the opportunities that come their way without any prejudice and ego, as if one does work, only then can they understand what their interests are. He mentioned that a major disadvantage of law is the delay in justice, while it is not the case in corporate law, the discipline he is a professional in. The speaker also disclosed that having an Indian Bar council membership can make one qualified to practice in the UAE. Finally, he shared the concept of law outsourcing while concluding the presentation by stressing upon the idea of grabbing every opportunity again.

The second speaker in the session was Mr. Sultan Rafai. Mr. Sultan is the winner of the award for the best differently abled entrepreneur 2021 by DRZYA organisation and the winner of the India's inspiring entrepreneur for the year 2022 by Indian Awards. He is the Co-founder of SUPERLYFE STORES and Max Trading Co. Superlyfe, a clothing retail in Chennai was started in the year 2019, that employs people with special needs, being a first for a cloth retailer in Chennai. His vision is to provide clothing / fashion accessible and affordable to the economically weaker section as well. The shop sells fashion clothing for children and adults at a low cost from only ₹9 to ₹499.

The first idea that Mr. Sultan put forth was understanding the importance of failure in life & he went on to explain how his first startup right after college had failed. He had explained how a classroom atmosphere had changed him, especially since he had grown up in homeschooling. The speaker next explained the importance of networking and how it can benefit entrepreneurship. The speaker then went on to mention how word of mouth benefitted his business. Then Mr. Sultan explained that an entrepreneur must always be a problem solver, a consistent player and a team player. He concluded the session by stressing on the importance of balance in entrepreneurship and time dedication for a question asked.

Key takeaways for students:

- Emphasizing on grabbing opportunities without ego and prejudice;
- Creating a good network among people, while being resilient and having a balance approach;
- Develop self-confidence and push themselves hard to achieve their desired goals;
