

Loyola College (Autonomous)

Chennai – 600 034.

The Inauguration of Loyola History Association 2015-16

Dignitaries arriving at the venue

The Loyola History Association 2015-16 was inaugurated on 14th July 2015 at LS Hall in Loyola College. Moortiswari Kuppasamy, Deputy Superintending Archaeologist, Fort Musuem, Fort St. George, Archaeological Survey of India, Ministry of Culture, Government of India was the chief guest. The august gathering was welcomed by Dr. L. Selvanathan, Head, Department of History, Loyola College.

Dignitaries on the dais

The prayer song by the Dept choir

Dr. Moortheeswari Kuppusamy, Deputy Superintending Archaeologist, ASI, Government of India delivering the Inaugural Address.

Mr. R. Xavier, Assistant Professor presenting memento to the Chief Guest.

Rev. Dr. G. Joseph Antonysamy S.J., Principal, Loyola College felicitated the gathering and stole the show. Rev. Fr. Principal stressed on the duties of history students in the formation of nation and congratulated the new office-bearers. Ms. Arputhaselvi, Assistant Professor of History who is also the Vice-President, Loyola History Association introduced the chief guest Dr. Moortiswari Kuppusamy.

Ms. Arputha Selvi, Assistant Professor and Vice President of Loyola History Association introducing chief guest

Mr. A. Ravisankar, Assistant Professor introducing the Association Members

Mr. S. Mahendranath, Secretary, Loyola History Association proposing the Vote of Thanks

The Chief Guest in her inaugural lecture brought out the new fields of history still to be explored. She also invited the students of the History Department to do their internships with the Archaeological Survey of India. Mr. Ravisankar, Assistant Professor of History and the President of Loyola History Association introduced the office-bearers and the chief guest inducted them with their official tags. Mr. S. Mahendranath, III B.A. History, Secretary of Loyola History Association proposed the vote of thanks.