

THE TRAINING AND PLACEMENT CELL
LOYOLA COLLEGE

Dear Students,

Greetings from Loyola Placement Cell!

The Training and Placement Cell is planning to launch a new initiative to support students of all courses irrespective of their year of study with internship opportunities.

Students who are interested for pursuing such exciting and empowering opportunities are asked to register in the below link.

Registered students will be receiving periodic mails with various internship opportunities in different fields. Going through the opportunity, if the internship profile inclines with student interests, they can proceed further.

The internship opportunities offered by us are of various categories such as Paid and Unpaid Internships, Part-Time and Flexible Internships, Work from Office and Remote Internships.

Registration Link: <https://forms.gle/XSy9rUaW1sTqx2qi6>

Kindly note that students have to login to mobile device browser or PC Browser using their Institutional (College Mail ID) in order to access the form and register in it.
