

PU-LCS honors its visiting faculty and officials of Pondicherry University with Centenary Souvenir

Pondicherry University - Loyola College Society (PU-LCS) recently celebrated Loyola College's centenary milestone with a heartwarming gesture. As part of the festivities, PU-LCS honored its visiting faculty members, officials from Pondicherry University, and staff members from the Directorate of Distance Education (DDE) with elegantly designed souvenirs.

The distribution of around 100 gifts was a token of appreciation for the recipients' invaluable contributions to the institution. The thoughtful gesture was warmly received by the recipients, who expressed their gratitude to PU-LCS and Loyola College Management.

Visiting faculty members were particularly touched by the recognition, expressing their heartfelt thanks to Rev. Fr. V. Sahayaraj SJ, Director of PU-LCS, and the Loyola College Management. They cherished the souvenir as a symbol of appreciation for sharing their expertise and knowledge with the institution.

The centenary celebration and souvenir presentation served as a testament to PU-LCS' commitment to fostering strong relationships with its faculty and the officials of Pondicherry University. The event highlighted the institution's gratitude for the collective efforts that have shaped its journey and success.

