

Report on the Faculty Meeting (28-07-2024)

The PU-LCS office convened the faculty meeting on July 28, 2024, at LS Hall. Rev. Fr. B. Jeyaraj SJ, Secretary, Loyola College, presided over the gathering, which drew 103 faculty members.

The meeting began on a spiritual note with a prayer song, followed by a warm welcome from Rev. Fr. V. Sahayaraj SJ. He took the faculty on a journey through the college's remarkable growth since its humble beginnings in 1925, highlighting the pivotal role of faculty members in shaping the twinning program's success.

Rev. Fr. Sahayaraj SJ emphasized the importance of fostering discipline among students from diverse backgrounds, stressing the faculty's vital role in nurturing young minds. He expressed gratitude to the management for their unwavering support, acknowledging the tireless efforts of the admin staff, and faculty members.

Rev. Fr. B. Jeyaraj SJ delivered a stirring felicitation, energizing the participants with his positive words. He commended the team for their hard work and dedication, wishing them all the best for the new academic year.

Dr. A. Marcus, Coordinator, presented the faculty guidelines, carefully crafted from student and faculty feedback, as well as past meeting reports. The session concluded with a vote of thanks, leaving the faculty members inspired and motivated.

The meeting's success was a testament to the meticulous planning by the admin staff, with Mr. Jacob Davis expertly handling the proceedings as Master of Ceremony. As the faculty members departed, they carried with them a renewed sense of purpose and camaraderie, ready to embark on a new academic journey together.
