

Orientation Meeting to prepare for 2022 Batch MBA Semester Examination (3rd – 7th October 2024)

On October 2, 2024, PU-LCS organized a preparatory meeting for the upcoming MBA Semester Examination. The meeting was held in two sessions: one for invigilators from 10:00 am to 11:00 am and another for floor in-charges from 1:45 pm to 2:15 pm.

During the invigilators' meeting, Rev. Fr. Director, PU-LCS, highlighted the examination's uniqueness, given the parallel conduct of regular Loyola College classes. He emphasized the vital role invigilators play in ensuring a smooth examination process, which will take place in Bertram Hall and 24 rooms of the Commerce-Economics Block. Rev. Fr. Director thanked the invigilators, who come from various institutions and industries, for their support. Instructions were read out, and modalities for collecting and submitting exam materials explained. Additionally, Dr. S. Prasanna Kumar was introduced as the Additional Chief Superintendent of Examinations for this semester.

In the afternoon session, floor in-charges were briefed on their role in supporting the examination's smooth conduct and their specific assignments. Dr. A. Marcus, Chief Superintendent of Examination, and Dr. S. Prasanna Kumar addressed doubts and stressed that the examination's success relies on the cooperation and coordination between invigilators and floor in-charges.
